7. WHEN SUPPLIER IS NOT TO BLAME

7.1. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the accessibility, accuracy and availability of the Website (or relevant parts thereof), Data Reports, Location Data and video footage is dependent upon systems, technologies and other factors which are beyond the Supplier's control including Mobile Communication Services. Due to the nature of such technologies and systems, problems such as outages, link failures, network overloads, signal degradation, topographic, electromagnetic and other interferences may have an adverse effect on the accessibility and availability of the Website, Data Reports, Location Data and/or video footage. The Supplier does not warrant that the Data Reports, Location Data, video footage and features made available on the Website will continue to be supported by Mobile Communication Services or that the Customer will be able to use the Data Reports, Location Data, video footage or features made available on the Website as part of the Services for the intended use, due to the fact that such depends partly on circumstances beyond the Supplier's reasonable control.

- 7.2. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Products and the Services are designed and intended for Fleet management purposes only. As such, Supplier is not responsible for any data privacy, employee relations, regulatory, compliance, insurance or other purposes for which the Customer may use the Products and Services and the Customer shall indemnify and keep the Supplier indemnified against all claims, demands, actions, proceedings, damages, charges, costs and expenses in any way arising out of or in connection with such usage.
- 7.3. Without prejudice to the generality of clause 7.2, the Supplier makes no representation or warranty that video recording capability will record any particular incident or that the record, if any, of a particular incident, will be effective to support an insurance claim, recovery against a third party, or otherwise.
- 7.4. Without prejudice to the generality of clause 7.2, it is the Customer's responsibility to satisfy itself that its use of the Services will allow it to meet any legal or regulatory obligations applicable to it. To the maximum extent permitted by law, in no event shall the Supplier be liable in connection with this Contract, whether in contract, tort (including in either case negligence), misrepresentation (other than fraudulent misrepresentation), breach of statutory duty or otherwise for breach of any applicable law or regulation applicable to the Customer's business activities in connection with its use of the Services.
- 7.5. It is the Customer's responsibility to ensure that any Hardware complies with any regulatory or legal requirements applicable to the vehicles or assets within its Fleet. The Customer shall indemnify the Supplier and keep the Supplier indemnified against all claims, demands, actions, proceedings, damages, charges, costs and expenses which may be brought against the Supplier in any way arising out of or in connection with (i) the Customer's failure to comply with its responsibility under clause 7.5; and/or (ii) use of the Hardware outside of any Hardware specification provided by the Supplier to the Customer.

7.7. The Supplier shall have the right at any time to temporarily suspend access to the Website for the purposes of maintaining or repairing the Website or any part thereof; and to make changes to the functionality, presentation, features, modes of access and material content in relation to the Website without notice to the Customer.

- 12.5. The Customer hereby grants the Supplier a non-exclusive, royalty free, fully-paid, irrevocable worldwide right and licence to access, review, analyse, use, manipulate, copy, and modify the Statistical Data for its own purposes, including using the information to produce and distribute reports, analyses and data based upon the Statistical Data.

13.1. The Customer and the Supplier agree that for the duration of this Contract and for a subsequent period of three years they will at all times keep any Confidential Information of the other Party as confidential and shall not permit the same to be copied, used, disclosed or disposed of except in accordance with this Contract. 14. DATA PROTECTION

14.1. The Customer and the Supplier will each observe all provisions of the Data Protection Laws. This includes the obligation of the Customer to duly inform involved Data Subjects about the Processing of their Personal Data by the Supplier under the instruction of the Customer. The Customer acknowledges that it is their responsibility to conduct all relevant data privacy impact assessments and to assure itself of the basis of its Processing of Personal Data and that its data protection policies are adequate.

14.2. The Customer and the Supplier acknowledge that, in respect of any Personal Data which the Supplier Processes on behalf of the Customer in connection with this Contract, the Customer shall be the Data Controller and the Supplier shall be the Data Processor.

14.3. The Supplier shall only collect, Process, store, and use Personal Data, and the Location Data:

14.3.1. to the extent that such is necessary for the performance of the Contract and the improvement of the Services;

14.6. The Customer may revoke its consent for the Processing of Personal Data in relation to this Contract at any time. Such revocation must be presented to the Supplier in writing and shall not affect the Contract and will leave the Customer's obligations (including payment obligations) under the Contract intact. The Customer acknowledges that, as a result of such revocation, the Supplier may not be able to provide the Services.

14.7. The Supplier shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect any Personal Data collected under the Contract against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of Processing. Having regard to the state of the art and the cost of their implementation, such measures shall 14.11. The Customer shall indemnify the Supplier and keep the Supplier indemnified against all claims, demands, actions, proceedings, damages charges, costs and expenses which may be brought against the Supplier in any way arising out of or in connection with a breach by the Customer of clause 14.10.

14.12. The Customer and the Supplier acknowledge that they have agreed that the Customer will respond to enquiries from Data Subjects, any governmental and/or judicial body concerning the Processing of Personal Data by the Supplier and that the Supplier will, upon request by the Customer, provide reasonable assistance to the Customer for these purposes.

14.13. The Annex to these Terms sets out the subject matter and duration of the Processing, the nature and purpose of the Processing, the type of Personal Data and categories of Data Subject as required by Article 28(3) of EU GDPR or equivalent provisions of any Data Protection Laws. As between the Customer and the Supplier, nothing in the Annex confers any right or imposes any obligation on either the Customer or the Supplier.

15.1. For all Customers other than PAYGO Customers, the Contract will continue in force for the Initial Term and any Subsequent Term unless terminated under clause 9.2.2, clause 15.2, or clause 15.3.

15.2. Whilst within the Initial Term or Subsequent Term, the Customer may give not less than 28 days' written notice to terminate the Contract, such notice to expire on the last day of the Initial Term or Subsequent Term (as applicable). Any notice given under this clause must be by email from the Customer to telematicscancellations@radius.com. The Supplier shall not accept any other form of notice from the Customer under this clause and if any other such notice is given, the Customer shall continue to pay the Prices.

15.3. The Supplier may, without prejudice to any of its other rights arising under this Contract, on giving written notice, terminate the Contract:

15.3.1. on not less than 28 days' written notice, such notice to expire on the last day of any calendar month; or

15.3.2. with immediate effect, if:

15.3.2.1. the Customer fails to observe or perform any material term or condition hereof, including in any event non-payment, and such default or breach (if capable of remedy) shall not be remedied within 20 days after notice in writing, specifying the breach and requiring the same to be remedied, has been given; or

15.3.2.2. any of the following events occur: (i) the presentation of a petition for winding up of the Customer; (ii) the Customer is the subject of an order or an effective resolution is passed for winding up the Customer; (iii) the application for an order or application for the appointment of a receiver (including an administrative receiver), administrator, trustee or similar officer in respect of the Customer; (iv) if a receiver, administrative receiver, administrator or similar office is appointed over all or any part of the assets or undertaking of the Customer; (v) the Customer making a composition or arrangement with its creditors generally or an assignment for the benefit of its creditors or other similar arrangement; (vi) the Customer goes into liquidation; (vii) the Customer becoming unable to pay its debts or otherwise becoming insolvent, or (viii) the Customer ceasing, or threatening to cease, to carry on business;

15.3.2.3. there has been any delay or failure in performance under the Contract resulting from any event of Force Majeure, which delay or failure shall have continued for a period of three months; or

16. WHAT THE CUSTOMER SHALL PAY WHEN THE CONTRACT IS TERMINATED

16.1. The Customer shall pay any unpaid fees up to and including the date of termination.

16.2. Upon termination, unless the Customer has purchased the Hardware or the termination is under clause 9.2.2, the Customer shall return the Hardware to the Supplier. If the Customer has lost, damaged or is unable to return the Hardware to the Supplier in good marketable condition within sixty (60) days of the termination of the Services, the Customer shall pay the Supplier a non-return fee set out in the Charges Schedule. For the avoidance of doubt, if, at any time, the Customer does not have in its possession or control the Hardware delivered to it, the Supplier may treat the Hardware as lost unless the Customer can prove otherwise.

IF SOMETHING GOES WRONG

17. HOW FAR EACH PARTY CAN BE HELD RESPONSIBLE

17.1. Nothing in the Terms shall be deemed to exclude or limit the Supplier's liability in respect of any liability which cannot legally be limited, including liability for:

17.1.1. death or personal injury resulting from negligence;

17.1.2. fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or

17.1.3. loss or damage caused by wilful intent of the Supplier or its officers, employees, agents, or contractors.

17.3. Subject to clauses 17.1 and 17.2, the Supplier's maximum aggregate liability under the Contract for all claims or otherwise shall be limited to the higher of (i) the Prices paid or to be paid by the Customer in the twelve months prior to the date on which the Customer's first claim arose; and (ii) €10,000.

18. FORCE MAJEURE EVENTS

If a Party is prevented or delayed in the performance of any of its obligations under the Contract by a Force Majeure Event, then that Party will be excused from the performance or punctual performance, as the case may be, of its obligation, to the extent that such Force Majeure Event continues and agrees to use reasonable endeavours to overcome or work around the Force Majeure Event so as to be able to perform its obligations under the Contract.

EVERYTHING ELSE

19. TRANSFERRING TO ANOTHER PARTY

The Supplier may freely assign its rights and obligations under the Terms without the Customer's consent. The Customer may not without the prior written consent of the Supplier assign, transfer, charge, license or otherwise dispose of or deal in a Contract or any of its rights or obligations under these Terms.

20. THIRD PARTIES' RIGHTS

Each Contract is made for the benefit of the Customer and the Supplier and is not intended to benefit any third party or be enforceable by any third party save for any third party software sub-licensing provisions. The right of the Customer or the Supplier to terminate, rescind, or agree any amendment, waiver, variation or settlement under or relating to the Terms is not subject to the consent of any third party.

21. NO PARTNERSHIP OR AGENCY ARRANGEMENT

21.1. The Contract does not:

21.1.1. set up any partnership, exclusive arrangement or joint venture between the Parties;

21.1.2. make one Party the agent of the other Party; or

21.1.3. authorise either Party us to enter any commitments for, or on the behalf of, the other Party.

22. NO WAIVER

22.1. No breach of any provision of the Terms will be waived except with the express written consent of the Party not in breach.

22.2. Failure or delay by either the Customer or the Supplier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of these Terms will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under these Terms. Any waiver by one Party of any breach of, or any default under, any provision of the Terms by the other Party will not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default and will in no way affect the other Terms.

23. WHAT HAPPENS IF PART OF THE CONTRACT IS ILLEGAL, INVALID OR UNENFORCEABLE

If any provision of the Terms is determined by any court or other competent authority to be unlawful or unenforceable, the other provisions of the Terms will continue in effect. If any unlawful and/or unenforceable provision would be lawful or enforceable if part of it were deleted, that part will be deemed to be deleted, and the rest of the provision will continue in effect (unless that would contradict the clear intention of the Customer and the Supplier, in which case the entirety of the relevant provision will be deemed to be deleted).

24. MAKING CHANGES TO THE CONTRACT

The Supplier shall be entitled to amend the Terms by publication on the Websites, which amendments shall come into force on the date that the Customer is notified thereof and apply to all Contracts whether entered into before or after that date.

25. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The Terms constitute the entire agreement between the Customer and the Supplier in relation to the Contract, and supersede all previous agreements, arrangements and understandings between the Customer and the Supplier in respect of the Contract, provided always that the usage of the Website by the Customer shall be governed by the Website Terms and Conditions.
